RULES ON ELIGIBILITY AND POLICY

A member who is retired from his place of employment and is no longer seeking gainful employment of any kind may be entitled to a Retirement Card.

A member who applies for a Retirement Card must at the time of application pay dues through the month in which the application is dated plus a $10.00 fee. The date of application is the date of retirement and should be the same as the last date for which you received wages, sick pay, vacation pay, or separation pay.

If you return to work you must surrender your Retirement Card for cancellation and reapply and pay the $10.00 fee when you again decide to retire.

Application for Retirement Card must be filed timely (within 60 days of last dues payment).
